

WEEKLY LESSON PLAN

School : KINSHASA CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Subject : English (Writing and Grammar)

Grade : 6

School Year: 2026 - 2027

Semester : 1st

Quarter : 1st

Week : 1

Teacher : Mr. CHRISTIAN AHADI NYABENDA

Chapter 1 : Sentences

Duration : 1h30'

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Lesson	Types of Sentences	Compound Subjects and Predicates	Subordinating Conjunctions	Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences	Prepositional Phrases
Objectives : By the end of the lesson, students should be able to:	Subjects and Predicates	Compound Sentences	Complex Sentences	Prepositions	Chapter 1 Review
	Write, Identify, and punctuate declarative, imperative, interrogative, and exclamatory sentences	Identify compound subjects and predicates . Distinguish simple and compound sentences. Write correct compound sentences using coordinating conjunctions.	Identify subordinating conjunctions (e.g., because, although, if, when). Use subordinating conjunctions in sentences. Construct complex sentences combining main and subordinate clauses.	Identify, differentiate and construct simple, compound, and complex sentences. Identify and use prepositions correctly in sentences. Recognize location and time prepositions	Identify objects of prepositions, and prepositional phrases in sentences. Expand sentences by adding prepositional phrases to a sentence. Use a comma after an introductory dependent clause, after a long introductory prepositional phrase, and in a compound sentence.
	Introduction 10 minutes
	The teacher greets learners and writes four different sentences on the board. Learners read them aloud and discuss how they are different.	Review subjects and predicates from the previous lesson.	Teacher reviews compound sentences from the previous day. Example: "I like tea, and I like coffee." Learners recall the use of two independent	Teacher revises: Compound sentences ; Complex sentences Short oral questions. Teacher asks: Where is the book? Learners respond using location words.	Teacher revises previous lessons by asking: What is a preposition? What is a compound sentence? What is a complex sentence?

Explain the four types of sentences, then introduce the concepts of subject and predicate using examples.		clauses joined by a conjunction.
Teach compound subjects, compound predicates and compound sentences with examples. Learners identify and create compound sentences.	Teacher explains that subordinating conjunctions introduce a subordinate clause, giving it less importance than the main clause.	Teacher explains the three sentence types: 1. Simple sentence: One idea. Example: She runs. 2. Compound sentence: Two independent clauses. Example: I like tea and I like coffee. 3. Complex sentence: Independent + dependent clause Example: I stayed home because it rained. Write 3 simple sentences ; Write 3 compound sentences Write 3 complex sentences Teacher explains prepositions: Examples: in, on, under, behind, between, at, next to.
Teacher explains that subordinating conjunctions introduce a subordinate clause, giving it less importance than the main clause.		Teacher explains: A prepositional phrase = preposition + object Examples: in the house ; on the table ; under the bed ; behind the door Sentence examples: The book is on the table. The cat is under the chair. Teacher highlights that prepositional phrases add detail to sentences. Teacher revises key grammar points: Simple sentences ; Compound sentences ; Complex sentences ; Coordinating conjunctions (and, but, or) ; Subordinating conjunctions (because, although, when) ;

Exit Ticket
10 minutes
Assessment
10 minutes

Review key concepts through oral questions and summarize the lesson.

Summarize the lesson and ask review questions.

Observe participation and mark written exercises.

Teacher asks oral questions: What is a subordinating conjunction? What is a complex sentence? Give one example of each.

Teacher evaluates learners based on:
correct use of subordinating conjunctions ; ability to form complex sentences ; participation in class activities

Teacher asks: What are the three types of sentences? Give examples.

Teacher checks written exercises.

Teacher asks: What is a preposition? Give examples

FIRST TEST

Homework

Write eight sentences: 2 declarative, 2 interrogative, 2 imperative and 2 exclamatory.
Underline the subject and circle the predicate.

Write 10 compound sentences using different coordinating conjunctions.

Write 10 complex sentences using different subordinating conjunctions.

Write 10 mixed sentences and identify their types.

Write 10 sentences using different prepositions.